

Dydd Mawrth 21 Mai

Speedily, Dave and Joe Scampered to the Supermarket because they had seen Bob in there. Bob was desperate to eat every single pizza in Australia but Dave and Joe were going to stop him! At the front of the shop were giant koalas. They were too big. How would they be able to get in?

They needed to get in before it was too late. They both jumped up and down to try to get off the Senses. Joe saw what he thought was an open door and ran to it. Unfortunately it was a window and he hurt his nose. Now they were stuck and Joe had a broken nose. A human was coming though.

The human walked through the door and the two koalas ran in behind her. There were human transporting boxes and floats that moved up and down. There were also very dangerous looking tools. They hoped the humans wouldn't use them. There was also a giant, cold looking box full of pizzas.

Bob was stood in front of this freezer box. He looked up at the delicious pizzas. He jumped up and opened the door. He got inside and was confused as to why he couldn't move. He tried and he tried but then...

He was frozen. His feet were blue. The numbness was starting to rise up his whole body was the Dave smelt Bob. He ran and he ran until he was there. He hoped that he was wrong. He kepted in and he opened the cold door. In surprise there was Bob. Bob was as cold as the North pole. Dave snapped the frozen Bob off the pizzas. Dave got Bob out. Dave thought he was toast.

~~Can be used to express~~ They sprinted as fast as a cheetah out of the ices. They need to get Bob in to the sun. As soon as they stepped in the heat Bob started to thaw like an ice cream in the sun. Soon after back to his old self. However he bit something that hurt Dave and Joe weeping he kepted apologising for asking the why he did Bob. So at a sign of anger in Dave's eyes.